ORDER:-

In the reference read above, the Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh has stated that, the DIG Technical Services has informed that the Police Computer Services (PCS) is functioning with only lower grade staff of 7 Data Entry Operators (DEOs) and 3 Associate Programmers and without a Programmer who is the basic need for a Computer Institution. Two posts of Programmers have been vacant for the past 5 years. This post could not be filled up by promotion due to non availability of eligible candidates in the feeder category of Associate Programmer.

2. He has also stated that, the Programmer is a dire necessity in PCS who has to play a vital role in implementation of e-Office, CCTNS Police Data Centre, Interoperable Criminal Justice System (ICJS), Emergency Response Support System (ERSS), Body Worn Cameras (BWCs), CCTV Surveillance System Locked House Monitory System (LHMS), Facial Recognition System (FRS), Aadhar Enable Biometric Attendance Solution (AEBAS), Mobile Applications etc. Hence, the DIG Technical Services has requested to fill up at least one post of Programmer with suitable candidate to cope up with the challenging work of the PCS.

3. The Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh has therefore requested the Government to issue orders for permission to Fill up One (01) vacant post of Programmer in Andhra Pradesh Police Computer Services by Direct Recruitment by the Appointing Authority through a Selection Committee alling for applications from in-Service candidates of the Police Department as a special case.

4. Government after careful consideration of the proposal, hereby accord permission for Filling up of One (01) vacant post of Programmer in Andhra Pradesh Police Computer Services by Direct Recruitment by the Appointing Authority through a Selection Committee calling for applications from in-Service candidates of the Police Department as a special case by invoking Rule-10(a) of Andhra Pradesh State and Subordinate Service Rules, 1996.

5. This order issues with the concurrence of Finance (FMU-H&C) Department, vide their U.O.No.FMU0ASD(HCL) /196/2020, dated 20.07.2020.

6. The Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh shall take necessary further action accordingly in the matter.
